Department of Homeland Security

RECEIVED

By ESEC at 5:31 pm, Apr 29, 2022

Dear Secretary Mayorkas:

On April 27, 2022 at a House Appropriations Committee hearing, you announced the creation of a “Disinformation Governance Board” that will focus on “countering misinformation and disinformation” in America. Separately, Nina Jankowicz announced that she will be employed as the board’s Executive Director. I write today because these actions merit review by Congress, both as a general matter, as well as under the Congressional Review Act and because the actions may be in violation of provisions of the Antideficiency Act.

Establishment of this board will significantly impact Americans’ free speech rights and cuts across numerous areas of government and society. It will change the relationship between the government and the governed to whom it answers. It will also substantially increase administrative costs for the number of different federal agencies engaged in this effort, which will impose increased costs on the American taxpayer.

Given this broad impact, Congress should be setting American policy in this area and certainly reviewing executive action impacting such fundamental rights, and therefore, it is imperative that this action receive congressional review.

Additionally, I write to confirm that you will comply with the requirements of the Congressional Review Act (CRA) in taking this action. Under the CRA, an agency action that falls within the definition of a “rule” must be submitted to Congress for review before it can take effect. 5 U.S.C. § 801(a)(1)(A). “The definition of a rule under the CRA is very broad.” Government Accountability Office B-323772, at 3 (Sept. 4, 2012), available at <https://www.gao.gov/assets/b-323772.pdf>. In pertinent part, the CRA defines a rule as: “the whole or a part of an agency statement of general or particular applicability and future effect designed to implement, interpret, or prescribe law or policy or describing the organization, procedure, or practice requirements of an agency.” 5 U.S.C. § 551(4). This is not limited to directives requiring notice, public comment, or similar Administrative Procedure Act procedures.

Further, this action may also be a direct violation of provisions of the Antideficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341(a)(1)(A)), which prohibits “making or authorizing an expenditure from, or creating or authorizing an obligation under, any appropriation or fund in excess of the amount available in the appropriation or fund unless authorized by law.”

In this case, it appears that the amount available for this action is “none” and that Congress explicitly defunded it, just weeks ago. Section 513 of Division F of the Fiscal Year 2022 Omnibus Appropriations Act (P.L. 117-103) specifically prohibits the Secretary of Homeland Security from using any funds provided by Congress to carry out Section 872 of the Homeland Security Act of 2002, which means it defunded any action to “allocate or reallocate functions among the officers of the Department of Homeland Security or to establish, consolidate, or alter organizational units within the Department of Homeland Security.”

As you know, an officer or employee, including you, who violates the Antideficiency Act “shall be subject to appropriate administrative discipline,” and, for willful violations, faces a criminal fine, imprisonment, or both. A federal employee who willfully violates the Antideficiency Act, “shall be subject to appropriate administrative discipline including, when circumstances warrant, suspension from duty without pay or removal from office.” A federal employee who “knowingly and willfully” violated it “shall be fined not more than $5,000, imprisoned for not more than 2 years, or both.”

Plainly, this DHS Disinformation Governance Board imposing significant constraints on the bedrock of American values and freedoms and new costs on the American people requires congressional review and may be a violation of the Antideficiency Act. So that Americans’ elected representatives may timely review the rules and policies implementing this action as required under federal law, please confirm by Monday, May 16, that you will submit it to Congress before it purports to take effect. Further, in order to comply with the Antideficiency Act, you will need to submit a letter to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, the President, the Congress, and the Comptroller General of the United States providing specific information on the violation if it has indeed occurred.

Thank you, and I look forward to your prompt reply.

Sincerely,

Dear Secretary Mayorkas:

We write to express our profound concern with the Department of Homeland Security's recent creation of a "Disinformation Governance Board".¹ In testimony before Congress, you stated that the Board's purpose would be to "combat disinformation" ahead of the November midterms.² According to media reports, as executive director of the Board, the Administration has chosen Nina Jankowicz, formerly a "disinformation fellow" at the Wilson Center.³

Given the complete lack of information about this new initiative and the potential serious consequences of a government entity identifying and responding to "disinformation," we have serious concerns about the activities of this new Board, particularly under Ms. Jankowicz's leadership. Among other things, she stated publicly that the Hunter Biden laptop should be "view[ed] as a Trump campaign product."⁴ Following Elon Musk's recent purchase of Twitter, Ms. Jankowicz tweeted: "I shudder to think about if free speech absolutists were taking over more platforms."⁵

To further our investigation of this matter and in preparation of Fiscal Year 2023 funding decisions, we request that you provide the following information:

RECEIVED

By ESEC at 10:52 am, May 02, 2022

Dear Secretary Mayorkas:

At a congressional hearing Wednesday, you announced the establishment of a “Disinformation Governance Board” to focus the resources of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) on the threat of “mis/disinformation.”¹ This statement should shock the very core of the American belief system, a threat to free speech that will rightly alarm freedom-loving people across America, including those in my home state of Missouri. This is because we know instinctively that shadowy government programs that promise protection from the “bogeyman” are in reality, clumsy attempts by deep-staters to slowly steal our liberties and invade our privacy step by step, while hoping we don’t notice. We are noticing.

Remarkably, the Biden Administration seems to believe it has both the wisdom and the authority to tell citizens what is true and what is false and what to believe and not believe. In what might well have been written as a response to DHS’s Orwellian announcement, the United States Supreme Court has clearly spoken on this subject, proclaiming that “Our constitutional tradition stands against the idea that we need Oceania’s Ministry of Truth.” United States v. Alvarez, 567 U.S. 709, 723 (2012) (per curiam) (citing G. Orwell, Nineteen Eighty-Four (1949) (Centennial ed. 2003)).

Here in the “Show Me” State of Missouri, we have a reputation for being suspicious of big-government bureaucrats offering to “help”—especially when they ask us to give up a bit of “essential liberty” in exchange for their “paid protection.” There are very good reasons for our skepticism, not the least of which is that yesterday’s “misinformation” often becomes tomorrow’s established fact. It isn’t hard to find examples of this right in front of our noses.

In early 2020, social-media platforms began to censor speech suggesting that COVID-19 leaked from a lab in Wuhan, China. Any suggestions of the obvious in this case were met with cries of “conspiracies, misinformation and disinformation.” Today, the Wuhan lab leak possibility is widely accepted, including by the Biden Administration, and it is supported by compelling circumstantial evidence.

On the eve of the 2020 election, the Biden campaign and its allies attacked reports of scandalous and likely illegal information on a laptop belonging to Hunter Biden. Once again, this inconvenient story was labeled “disinformation.” Today, a year-and-a-half later, it is suddenly accepted as truthful.

Those of us against mask mandates were told we were spreading disinformation that might “kill grandma.” Today, there is overwhelming evidence that not only do masks not work in curbing the spread of disease, but they also are actually harmful to the social and educational development of our children, as well as their mental health.

In fact, the Biden Administration frequently applies terms like “misinformation” and “disinformation,” not based on actual truth or falsity, but based on their preferred political narrative. This has resulted, again and again, in the suppression of truth and has given the American people good reason to look askance at the government’s efforts to control what we hear and read, the personal conclusions we come to about what is true and false and what we believe. This is frightening and extremely dangerous. We are thinking people. We needn’t have Big Government’s “help” in deciding what we think is true.

There is already a clear way to address false and misleading speech while respecting the rights of each and every citizen. It is called “more speech,” and it is enshrined in the First Amendment, the beating heart of our Constitution. “Society has the right and civic duty to engage in open, dynamic, rational discourse. These ends are not well-served when the government seeks to orchestrate public discussion through content-based mandates.” Alvarez, 567 U.S. at 728.

I also find curious the timing of this announcement. Based on this Administration’s pattern of censorship, the timing of the Disinformation Governance Board’s unveiling is suspicious, raising questions as to whether it is related to the purchase of Twitter by Elon Musk, who has publicly pledged to honor principles of free speech on the platform.

The people of this country are a free people who believe in and practice self-government. We revere our flag, and we respect the rule of law. We also understand that our rights, including the right to free speech, are God-given, not given by a king or queen or even a Disinformation Governance Board. So if you continue to try and trample on our free speech rights under the false banner of “disinformation,” on behalf of the citizens of the State of Missouri, I will fight this government overreach every single step of the way. The future of our Republic is at stake.

Very Truly Yours,

Eric S. Schmitt
Attorney General of Missouri

Dear Secretary Mayorkas,

It is with sincere concern that we write to you regarding the recently established “Disinformation Governance Board” within the Department of Homeland Security.¹ Your recent testimony and media statements regarding the board, as well as a recent briefing for Committee staff, have only created more questions and concern. This Committee will carry out rigorous oversight of this board.

In addition to further explanation regarding the establishment of the board, the American people deserve continued transparency surrounding the board’s discussions, decisions, and actions. To that end, we demand that you make publicly available on the Department’s website the following information:

1. The establishing charter of the Disinformation Governance Board, including the purpose, goals, and authority of such board, as well as any changes or updates to that charter as those occur going forward;
2. A list of current Disinformation Governance Board members, including the member’s position within the Department and appointing authority (Presidential Appointment with Senate Confirmation, Presidential Appointment without Senate Confirmation, Noncareer Senior Executive Service, Career Senior Executive Service, etc.), as well as any changes or updates to that list as those occur going forward;
3. A descriptive list of all budgetary expenses related to the operation of the Disinformation Governance Board;

4. Details regarding the frequency of Disinformation Governance Board meetings and the planned agendas for the meetings;
5. Ongoing information on the establishment of any sub-groups, including working groups or task forces, which result from the Disinformation Governance Board's work;
6. Minutes and recommendations that result from any and all Disinformation Governance Board meetings, posted and subsequently archived; and
7. A list of private sector entities, including social media companies, which the Disinformation Governance Board and its members interact with, as well as details regarding those interactions.

As you are aware, information to this effect is made available by numerous government bodies, including but not limited to the Homeland Security Advisory Council.² Considering that fact, as well as the constitutional concerns which have arisen from the Department's involvement in matters such as this, these are standards that must be met for the sake of transparency.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. Please respond to this letter no later than May 23, 2022. Should you or your staff have any questions, please contact Adrienne Spero on the Committee staff at (202) 226-8417.

Dear Secretary Mayorkas:

We write to conduct oversight over the Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) newly created "Disinformation Governance Board" and continued efforts within the Biden Administration to suppress free speech and discredit legitimate criticism as misinformation. High-level Administration officials have perpetuated demonstrably false claims, including promoting the false narrative that the Hunter Biden laptop story was Russian disinformation¹ and that Border Patrol Agents were whipping Haitian migrants.² Rather than correct its false narratives and focus on the serious threats facing the homeland—including the crisis on our southern border—the Administration continues to falsely accuse political opponents of spreading misinformation. In most circumstances, the Administration's definition of "misinformation" is any fact or opinion that is critical of its abysmal policies and decisions. The United States' internal security apparatus must serve to protect the American people from threats to the homeland, not be weaponized by an unpopular President to push false narratives and discredit lawful discourse.

DHS is creating the Orwellian-named "Disinformation Governance Board" with a mission of "coordinat[ing] countering misinformation related to homeland security, focused specifically on irregular migration and Russia."³ Nina Jankowicz, a former Fulbright-Clinton Public Policy Fellow, has been tapped to lead the board as its Executive Director.⁴ Ms. Jankowicz recently derided defenders of the First Amendment as "free speech absolutists" engaged in "abuse" against "marginalized communities,"⁵ promoted the work of Christopher

Her many public statements undermining First Amendment freedoms further call into question the purpose of the “Disinformation Governance Board,” and signal that it is likely being set up to provide political cover for an unpopular Administration and to launder political attacks against its opponents.

It is no surprise the Administration is not pleased that the consequences of its disastrous policy decisions have led to unfavorable media coverage and the loss of the American people’s trust. The haphazard and poorly planned withdrawal from Afghanistan, rampant inflation, and the crisis on the border are difficult to hide. The creation of the “Disinformation Governance Board” appears to double down on this Administration’s continued abuse of taxpayer dollars and the federal government’s powers to attack Americans who disagree with its policies, smearing them as extremists and perpetrators of “mis- dis- and mal-information.”⁸ Whether maligning opponents of the Administration’s COVID-19 vaccine and mask mandates as “domestic violent extremists,”⁹ or smearing parents concerned with ensuring their children receive a quality, in-person education as domestic terrorists,¹⁰ the Administration appears dead-set on suppressing opinions in opposition to its radical agenda.

It comes as no surprise that the “Disinformation Governance Board” will begin to focus on promoting the Administration’s narrative around “irregular migration,” likely promoting the demonstrably false claim repeated constantly by senior Administration officials that the Administration is creating a “safe, orderly, and humane immigration system.”¹¹ In fact, the Administration has already been caught trying to prevent unfavorable media coverage of the border crisis by banning media drones during a surge in Del Rio, Texas last year.¹² Instead of laundering the facts of the border crisis—which is anything but “safe, orderly, and humane”—through a lens of Administration-approved talking points, DHS political leadership should cease

Re: Significant Concerns Regarding the “Disinformation Governance Board”

Dear Secretary Mayorkas:

We write on behalf of Protect Democracy, the Electronic Frontier Foundation, and the Knight First Amendment Institute at Columbia University to express our concern regarding last week’s announcement that the Department of Homeland Security has established a “Disinformation Governance Board.”¹ Disinformation causes real harms, but the Constitution limits the government’s role in combating disinformation directly, and the government can play no useful role at all in the absence of public trust. The announcement of this Board, housed in a Department with a checkered record on civil liberties and without clarity and specificity on its mandate, has squandered that trust.

The initial report revealing the Board’s existence provided that the Board would “immediately begin focusing on misinformation aimed at migrants, a problem that has helped to fuel sudden surges at the U.S. southern border in recent years,” as well as “monitor and prepare for Russian disinformation threats.”² In an interview over the weekend, you further noted that the Board will “work[] to ensure that the way in which we address threats—the connectivity between threats and acts of violence—are addressed without infringing on free speech, protecting civil rights and civil liberties—the right of privacy. The Board . . . will draw from best practices and communicate those best practices to the operators”³ You also said that American citizens would not be monitored.⁴ Yesterday, the Department issued a statement providing that “[t]he Department identifies disinformation that threatens the homeland through publicly available sources, research conducted by academic and other institutions, and information shared by other federal agencies and partners” and “then shares factual information related to its mission to potentially impacted people and organizations.”⁵ The statement specifies that the Board was formed “with the explicit goal of ensuring . . . protections [for freedom of speech, civil rights, civil liberties, and privacy] are appropriately incorporated across DHS’s disinformation-related work and that rigorous safeguards are in place.”⁶ It also notes that the Board will “seek[] to coordinate the Department’s engagements on this subject with other federal agencies and a diverse range of external stakeholders.”⁷

We acknowledge and appreciate the Department’s recognition that mis- and disinformation is a significant problem, particularly with respect to non-English speaking communities.⁸ Those who intentionally spread disinformation can distort public discourse, interfere with elections, and undermine democracy. While we do not believe that there is a single solution to the problem of disinformation, among the solutions needed are the provision of timely, accurate, and trustworthy information by the government, as well as longer term support for education initiatives focused on media literacy. To the extent that the Board would simply ensure that the Department responds to publicly reported disinformation campaigns with timely, accurate information, we would generally welcome such an effort. In the 2020 election, for example, the Department’s Cybersecurity & Infrastructure Security Agency offered a timely rebuttal to claims that there was widespread fraud in the 2020 election.⁹ That is one kind of work that the government can and should do to counteract disinformation.¹⁰

But for the government to play its appropriate role effectively, it must build trust and demonstrate a commitment to abiding by the strict limitations the Constitution places on its ability to combat disinformation, described in some more detail below. The way in which the Department has publicly announced the Board has fallen short on those fronts. Moreover, for the reasons below, we do not believe such an initiative should be housed at the Department. If the Administration is committed to housing it at the Department, though, the Department should at a minimum impose clear restrictions on the Board to ensure that it does not engage in more constitutionally suspect activities.

To the extent that the Board or the Department intends to take any measures to prohibit disinformation or otherwise punish the spread of disinformation or to engage in constitutionally suspect monitoring of communications of individuals in the United States or of citizens abroad, we urge the Department to reconsider for two primary reasons.

First, “[i]f there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics, nationalism, religion, or other matters of opinion or force citizens to confess by word or act their faith therein.”¹¹ Our First Amendment prohibits such efforts, and for good reason. We have learned the hard way that government initiatives to root out disfavored speech and ideas are dangerous and unwise.¹² Any effort to prohibit or punish the spread of “disinformation” by the Department would likely fall outside of what the Constitution permits, absent extraordinary circumstances and outside narrow categories of speech.

Second, the Department has a history of flouting the Constitution in flagrant ways. It is one of the least politically accountable agencies in our federal government,¹³ and it has often violated individuals' civil liberties. The Department has a particularly poor track record when it comes to "monitoring" individual's First Amendment-protected activities. From illegally surveilling Reverend Kaji Douša after she spoke out against the Trump Administration's immigration policies,¹⁴ to gathering intelligence on reporters that cover the Department,¹⁵ to monitoring the social media accounts of visa applicants,¹⁶ the Department has demonstrated a readiness to cross the legal bounds of privacy and speech rights. We therefore take little comfort from the Department's assurances that it will "'protect privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties' as part of its duties."¹⁷

Even in the hands of well-intentioned, good-faith actors, any government board ostensibly tasked with monitoring and "govern[ing]" disinformation is a frightening prospect; in the wrong hands, such a board would be a potent tool for government censorship and retaliation. The Department now seems to suggest that the primary purpose of the Board is to ensure that civil liberties are protected in activities the Department is already engaged in. If that is the case, it is unfortunate that that purpose was so obscured in a confusing rollout that invited misperception and undermined trust.

We welcome the Department's recognition of the serious problems posed by mis- and disinformation. But for the reasons above, we question whether the Board can play a useful role in combating mis- and disinformation at this point and would encourage you to reconsider the

Re: The "Disinformation Governance Board"

Dear Secretary Mayorkas,

I am writing about the decision to create a bizarre "Disinformation Governance Board" at the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Its sole function is to spy on American citizens, using authorization under the Patriot Act. Your job, and the DHS', was to protect Americans from foreign threats. You have now created an internal police force that is based on political speech and political concerns.

This board is not only unconstitutional and purely partisan, but it is a Soviet-style attempt to obliterate freedom of speech. Congress has not authorized this new department or funded it. Your DHS' February 7, 2022 terrorism bulletin cites a "heightened threat environment" due to domestic terrorism. The bulletin also states that "there is widespread online proliferation of false or misleading narratives regarding unsubstantiated widespread election fraud and COVID-19." And that "grievances associated with these themes inspired violent extremist attacks during 2021."

Almost every sentence is either false or at least subject to dispute. Certainly, there has been false information about the 2020 election and COVID-19. Most of it just happens to come from the Administration itself. But even if you disagree with that, you are not free to label this difference of opinion as "terrorism" and set up an illegal internal secret police. This is an outrageous abuse of civil rights and free speech.

My constituents were forced by the federal government to stay home, not go to school, and shut their businesses. Many were compelled to inject experimental and untested foreign biological material into their body. Many were denied proper treatment for COVID-19 while they watched other nations in real time successfully treat their citizens with remedial and effective drugs. The people have a right to speak about this and share their perspectives and displeasure, without the DHS declaring them terrorists or sharers of disinformation.

This Administration's efforts to propagandize and mislead Americans is not limited to your new Censorship Board. In February 2021, the DOD ordered a "directed standdown" "to address the issue of extremism in the ranks." 62.9% of all new money requested by DOJ in FY 2022 was for the purpose of fighting "domestic violent extremists"—which included the hiring of 299 new employees. And in October 2021, Attorney General Garland directed the full force of federal law enforcement against parents outraged over their children's indoctrination in support of sexual deviancy, pedophilia, grooming, and sexual mutilation in the name of gender dysphoria. Parents should be outraged, and you should be ashamed to support the sexual mutilation of our children. But at the very least you should end your efforts to classify these parents as terrorists.

Please also respond to the following questions:

1. Could you explain why violence from BLM and Antifa is not listed as violent extremism?
2. Can you explain why the recent mass killings by two Black Nationalists were not deemed domestic violent extremism?
3. Could you please list all the "violent extremist attacks in 2021?" Your bulletin and testimony are entirely devoid of evidence.
4. Could you please list property damage and lives lost due to "violent extremist attacks in 2021"?
5. Please list and identify all monetary damage and lives lost due to BLM riots in the summer of 2020?
6. Please identify all congressional sources authorizing a censorship board as being constructed by your office.
7. What is the amount you are budgeting for the new disinformation board?

Thank you for addressing my concerns. Please adhere to all rules and regulations when addressing these issues.

Sincerely,

Dana Bash

Dana Bash is CNN's chief political correspondent and co-anchor of State of the Union with Jake Tapper and Dana Bash, the network's Sunday morning newsmaker show. Bash is based in Washington, D.C., where she covers both campaigns and Congress and regularly serves as a moderator for CNN's political town hall specials.

She also moderated CNN's first debate of the 2020 election cycle in Detroit, as well as the last Democratic Presidential Debate of the cycle held in Washington, D.C. Bash also anchored special coverage of Election Night in America surrounding the 2020 election, which lasted several days until CNN was the first to project Joe Biden as the winner. Bash is the winner of the National Press Foundation's 2019 Sol Taishoff Award for Excellence in Broadcast Journalism.

Bash played a key role in CNN's 2016 presidential primary debates, serving as a questioner in six of the network's seven primetime primary debates on both sides of the aisle. Bash also serves as a co-anchor on set in the CNN Election Center for all election night specials. As part of her coverage of the 2016 presidential campaigns, Bash conducted sit-down interviews with majority of the candidates including Donald Trump, Senators Ted Cruz, Marco Rubio, and Bernie Sanders, and Governors Jeb Bush and John Kasich.

Bash also continues to be instrumental to the network's Capitol Hill coverage. In 2015, she broke news on live television that House Majority Leader Kevin McCarthy would not be running for Speaker of the House and also conducted Speaker John Boehner's final interview on his last day in office. Bash also served as the lead correspondent covering former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton's 11-hour testimony before the House Select Committee on Benghazi.

Bash graduated cum laude with her bachelor's degree in political communications from The George Washington University.

Bret Baier

Bret Baier currently serves as FOX News Channel's (FNC) anchor and executive editor of Special Report with Bret Baier (weeknights at 6-7PM/ET) and chief political anchor of the network. He joined FNC in 1998 as the first reporter in the Atlanta bureau and is now based in Washington, DC.

Most recently, Baier has provided live breaking news coverage surrounding Russia's invasion of Ukraine, interviewing Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky and Ukrainian Foreign Minister Dmytro Kuleba. Throughout his tenure at FNC, Baier has played a critical role in every major political event since joining the network.

Prior to his anchor role, Baier was named chief White House correspondent in 2006 and covered the second term of the George W. Bush administration. Before that, he served as national security correspondent covering military and national security affairs, as well as defense, military policy and the intelligence community from the Pentagon.

As FNC's Southeastern correspondent from 1998 to 2001, he covered a range of stories, including the 2001 Timothy McVeigh execution and the 1999 Elian Gonzalez story. He has also provided a series of reports from Cuba and covered more than a dozen hurricanes.

Prior to joining FNC, Baier worked for WRAL-TV (CBS 5) in Raleigh, NC, WREX-TV (NBC 13) in Rockford, IL and WJWJ-TV (PBS 2) in Beaufort, SC. A graduate of DePauw University, he has a B.A. in political science and English. He is also the author of four New York Times Best-Sellers.

Chuck Todd

Chuck Todd, NBC News political director and moderator of Meet the Press, spearheads the network's premier political coverage, offering insider analysis and translation of Beltway politics across all platforms – zeroing in on what really matters in Washington and why.

Todd is also a primary anchor for the network's primetime election coverage and is known for holding politicians and newsmakers accountable.

Prior to taking the helm of Meet the Press in September 2014, Todd served as NBC News chief White House correspondent (2008 - 2014), traveling around the world with President Obama and reporting on the main pillars of his presidency, including the passage of the Affordable Care Act. From 2010 to 2014, Chuck also hosted MSNBC's The Daily Rundown, featuring daily interviews with top congressional members.

In 2007, Tim Russert, then-Washington bureau chief and Meet the Press moderator, recruited Todd to join NBC News as the network's political director. Prior to joining NBC News, Todd worked at the National Journal's "The Hotline" for 15 years, serving for six of those years as the editor-in-chief.

Todd is a native of Miami and currently resides in Arlington, Va. with his wife, Kristian, and two children.

RECEIVED

Dear Secretary Mayorkas:

I write to request information regarding the Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) plans to create a "Disinformation Governance Board" to purportedly counter misinformation related to homeland security issues. On April 27, 2022, Politico reported DHS is particularly focused on information related to "irregular migration and Russia."¹ Nina Jankowicz confirmed reports that she will serve as this board's executive director.²

The Biden Administration has not proven itself to be a credible arbiter of "disinformation." Instead, it has taken steps to silence information that is unflattering to this Administration under the guise of "disinformation." For example, unnamed intelligence officials, the media, and social media platforms engaged in a coordinated effort to censor stories about Hunter Biden's laptop and his questionable financial dealings under the false label of "disinformation."³

In fact, Ms. Jankowicz herself has been a beacon of misinformation online. She has published multiple tweets furthering the false media narrative about the Hunter Biden laptop.⁴ In one tweet she wrote, "IC has a high degree of confidence that the Kremlin used proxies to push influence narratives, including misleading or unsubstantiated claims about President Biden, to US media, officials, and influencers, some close to President Trump. A clear nod to the alleged Hunter laptop."⁵ In another, she referred to the origins of how the media came into possession of the contents of Hunter Biden's laptop as a "fairy tale about a laptop repair shop."⁶ She has also posted tweets pushing the Trump-Russia collusion hoax and another implying the United States is as corrupt as Ukraine.⁷

Now, DHS is creating a board to counter misinformation focusing on irregular migration and Russia and appointing a purveyor of misinformation to lead that effort.⁸ DHS is taking this action just weeks after announcing its plans to stop Title 42 expulsions at the southwest border, which has sparked a surge of illegal migrant crossing at the border, with CBP reporting an average of over 7,000 encounters a day in March 2022 compared with over 5,900 a day in February 2022.⁹ DHS even concedes it needs to be prepared to encounter 18,000 migrants a day at the southwest border once Title 42 is lifted.¹⁰

You claim this Administration's border policies are humane, but the crises caused by your policies have only added to the many tragedies caused by illegal immigration. I am concerned DHS's Disinformation Board will only serve to silence or censor those voices critical of your disastrous policies and serve a political cover for your failure to secure the border.

1. Provide the statute allowing DHS to create the Disinformation Board, appoint board members, and assign or hire staff.
2. How does DHS define "misinformation"?
3. What does DHS consider to be "irregular migration"?
4. What does DHS consider to be misinformation about irregular migration?
5. What DHS component or office is responsible for monitoring and collecting data on "misinformation"? How many staff are tasked with this assignment? What are their job descriptions and classifications?
6. What specific actions does DHS intend to take to "counter misinformation"?

Dear Secretary Mayorkas:

I write with deep concern about the Department of Homeland Security's decision to create a new Disinformation Governance Board. I confess, I at first thought this announcement was satire. Surely no American Administration would ever use the power of Government to sit in judgment on the First Amendment speech of its own citizens. Sadly, I was mistaken. Rather than protecting our border or the American homeland, you have chosen to make policing Americans' speech your priority. This new board is almost certainly unconstitutional and should be dissolved immediately.

For well over a year, your Department has consistently treated competing policy views as disinformation to be monitored or investigated. However, political debates on issues such as immigration, pandemic lockdowns, and foreign policy clearly constitute "core political speech" protected by the First Amendment.¹ The Supreme Court has even gone so far as to say that "Under the First Amendment there is no such thing as a false idea."² The apparent broad mandate of this new government entity to "coordinate countering misinformation" in America undermines the argument that it can even exist consistent with the Constitution.³

Particularly troubling is your choice to lead the new board, Nina Jankowicz, a supposed "expert" with a long history of partisan attacks. Consider:

- In 2020, she described President Trump's use of the national guard as "a sentence I expect to hear from leaders of authoritarian countries, not the President of the United States."⁴
- In 2021, she quoted with praise an article that said "homegrown fascism predated President Donald Trump."⁵
- She has said America is systemically racist.⁶
- In response to revelations about Hunter Biden's laptop, she tweeted that "50 former natsec officials and 5 former CIA heads that believe the laptop is a Russian influence op. Trump says 'Russia, Russia, Russia.'"⁷

Jankowicz has said the new DHS Board will “maintain the Dept’s committment [sic] to protecting free speech.”⁸ This is particularly ironic given Jankowicz’s extensive criticism of free speech and the First Amendment. Jankowicz has claimed that “the ‘free speech vs censorship’ framing is a false dichotomy.”⁹ And when Elon Musk announced his acquisition of Twitter, she said “I shudder to think about if free speech absolutists were taking over more platforms, what that would look like for the marginalized communities ... which are already shouldering ... disproportionate amounts of this abuse.”¹⁰ Jankowicz has even described opponents of social media speech codes as “first amendment zealots.”¹¹ These statements that question the value of free speech are obviously disqualifying for such a role.

While Democrats have for years controlled the public square through their Big Tech allies, Mr. Musk’s acquisition of Twitter has shown just how tenuous that control is. It can only be assumed that the sole purpose of this new Disinformation Governance Board will be to marshal the power of the federal government to censor conservative and dissenting speech. This is dangerous and un-American. The board should be immediately dissolved.

So that Congress can consider remedial legislation, please provide the following responses prior to your expected testimony before the Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee on May 4, 2022:

1. How will this Disinformation Board function? And who exactly will it be monitoring?
2. What analysis did DHS conduct, if any, to ensure that the Disinformation Board and its activities comport with the First Amendment?
3. Why did DHS time its announcement of this governance board directly after Mr. Musk’s acquisition of Twitter?
4. Who appointed Ms. Jankowicz to head the board as executive director? Were you aware of her history of partisan conduct prior to her appointment?
5. Has DHS conferred with any private social media company in the creation or operation of this board?

Sincerely,

Josh Hawley

RECEIVED
By ESEC at 10:29 am, May 03, 2022

Dear Secretary Mayorkas:

I write to express my grave concern regarding the Department of Homeland Security's ("the Department") recent creation of the Disinformation Governance Board ("the Board"). In an April 27, 2022 hearing before the House Appropriations Subcommittee, you testified that the purpose of the Board is to "combat misinformation" ahead of the 2022 midterm elections in November.¹ Additionally, the Department defended its creation of the Board by citing the need to counter Russian disinformation and misleading information drawing migrants to the southern border.² The Department would be much better served by focusing its resources on securing our southern border. The creation of this Board has the appearance of an Orwellian government censorship operation.

I have serious concerns that the Board will be used to monitor and police the speech, thoughts, and opinions of American citizens under the guise of combating misinformation. I am particularly concerned that this administration will weaponize the Board as a political tool to discredit legitimate criticism of President Biden's policies. These concerns are substantiated by the appointment of Nina Jankowicz—who has a history of political partisanship and supporting dubious claims—as the Board's executive director. In 2020, Ms. Jankowicz promoted Christopher Steele,³ who produced a discredited dossier that alleged misconduct by the Trump 2016 presidential campaign. Prior to the 2020 presidential election, Ms. Jankowicz tried to discredit the Hunter Biden laptop story and stated that it "should be view[ed] as a Trump campaign product."⁴ Ms. Jankowicz has made a career out of silencing the speech of those with whom she disagrees.

The Department's decision to task her with policing so-called disinformation will undoubtedly have a chilling effect on the speech of the millions of Americans who disagree with this administration's policies.

The creation of the Board just two days after Elon Musk purchased Twitter raises the specter that this Administration plans to step in to censor Americans' speech when private industry is unwilling to do so. Ms. Jankowicz herself even tweeted, "I shudder to think about if free speech absolutists were taking over more platforms."⁵ Ms. Jankowicz's criticism of "free speech absolutists" should give all Americans pause. It is clear that, with Ms. Jankowicz at the helm, this Board will focus its efforts on suppressing information that conflicts with the Biden administration's preferred narrative under the guise of "disinformation."

I urge you to disband the Disinformation Governance Board and make it clear to the American public that the Department of Homeland Security will not serve as a partisan tool to discredit criticism of the Biden administration. I also urge you to clarify that the Department and the federal government have no place interfering with the rights of all Americans to speak publicly about their political views, regardless of whether those views align with the political talking points of this Administration.

As the Secretary of Homeland Security, you took an oath to uphold our Constitution. Enshrined in the Constitution is the freedom of speech, and that includes the right to question the government and its preferred narrative. Speech that criticizes the administration's policies and failings falls within the heart of the First Amendment's protections. In fact, the Supreme Court has made it abundantly clear that this kind of "core political speech" is "the primary object of First Amendment protection."⁶ It is your duty as the Secretary of Homeland Security to ensure that your Department does not interfere with this core protected speech in any way.

1. What authority do Ms. Jankowicz and the Board hold?
2. What are the sources of funding for the Board and its activities?

Ms. Nina Jankowicz
U.S. Department of Homeland Security
301 7th Street S.W.
Washington, DC 20528

Dear Ms. Jankowicz:

On April 27, 2022, Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas testified that the Biden Administration had established a so-called “Disinformation Governance Board” to combat alleged disinformation and misinformation.¹ According to news reports, which you acknowledged on Twitter, you will lead the board as its executive director.² This Board is un-American, anti-democratic, and a dangerous escalation of the Biden Administration’s embrace of government-endorsed censorship. In addition, judging from your past statements, Americans can not and should not trust you with your newfound authority to act as the Biden Administration’s arbiter of the truth.

The Biden Administration has shown that it has, at best, a tenuous relationship with the truth. For example, President Biden has repeatedly and falsely asserted that facts about Hunter Biden’s business dealings with corrupt Ukrainian and Communist Party-linked Chinese nationals are Russian disinformation.³ President Biden made these assertions despite an independent Senate investigation substantiating many of the allegations.⁴ The New York Post has similarly reported on these dealings for years, and the New York Times and the Washington Post have more recently confirmed much of the original reporting.⁵

² Eugene Daniels et al., POLITICO Playbook: Fauci pulls out of WHCD. Is Biden next?, POLITICO (Apr. 27, 2022); Nina Jankowicz (@wiczipedia), TWITTER (Apr. 27, 2022, 7:17 AM), <https://twitter.com/wiczipedia/status/1519274470049042432>.

³ See Tyler Olson, President Biden said Hunter laptop was Russian disinformation, but some now says it ‘could’ be his, FOX NEWS (Apr. 2, 2021).

COMM. ON FINANCE, 116TH. CONG., MAJORITY STAFF SUPPLEMENTAL (Nov. 2020).

⁵ See, e.g., Emma-Jo Morris & Gabrielle Fonroque, Smoking-gun emails reveals how Hunter Biden introduced Ukrainian businessman to VP dad, N.Y. POST (Oct. 14, 2020); Katie Brenner et al., Hunter Biden paid tax bill, but broad federal investigation continues, N.Y. TIMES (Mar. 16, 2022); Matt Viser et al., Inside Hunter Biden’s multimillion-dollar deals with a Chinese energy company, WASH. POST (Mar. 30, 2022).

You have similarly propagated this and other misinformation.⁶ On October 14, 2020, you were quoted in an Associated Press article about Hunter Biden’s laptop as saying it “should [be] view[ed] as a Trump campaign product.”⁷ On October 22, 2020, you argued that the laptop story was “a [fairy] tale about a laptop repair shop.”⁸ On March 16, 2021, you asserted that an intelligence community assessment about Russian and other foreign activities related to the 2020 election was a “clear nod to the alleged Hunter laptop.”⁹ On April 2, 2021, despite your statements to the contrary, Hunter Biden conceded that the laptop may have been his, and the New York Times subsequently reported that he had abandoned the laptop at the Delaware repair shop.¹⁰

You have also pushed left-wing disinformation about the so-called “Steele Dossier,” the false and tawdry set of allegations about President Trump generated and pushed by Democrat operatives during the 2016 election cycle. On April 22, 2020, you promoted the false narrative that the Steele Dossier “began as a Republican opposition research project.”¹¹ In fact, it was “Hillary Clinton’s campaign and the Democratic National Committee” that paid “Fusion GPS [beginning] in April [2016] for research that eventually became the basis for the dossier.”¹² You later promoted an interview with Steele that you described as providing “some great historical context about the evolution of disinfo.”¹³ You also promoted other theories, for instance about disclosures made by then-Director of National Intelligence John Ratcliffe, that turned out to be false.¹⁴

The establishment of the Biden Administration’s Board and your appointment to lead it gives rise to considerable concerns about its effect on Americans’ fundamental civil liberties. The ability of Americans to engage in robust debate and conversation is the foundation of American politics, and there is no place for a de facto ministry of truth in our government. The very idea of a ministry of truth should be revolting to all Americans who hold our Bill of Rights in high regard.

Hon. Alejandro Mayorkas
Secretary of Homeland Security
Washington, D.C. 20528

Re: DHS's Disinformation Governance Board Must Be Disbanded.

Dear Secretary Mayorkas:

As the chief legal officers of our respective States, we the undersigned Attorneys General are tasked not just with enforcing the laws, but with protecting the constitutional rights of all our citizens. Today we write you to insist that you immediately cease taking action that appears designed exclusively for the purpose of suppressing the exercise of constitutional rights.

Every American knows that the Constitution forbids the government to "abridg[e] the freedom of speech." U.S. Const. Amend. I. As Justice Robert Jackson wrote nearly eighty years ago, "[i]f there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics, nationalism, religion, or other matters of opinion." West Virginia State Bd. of Educ. v. Barnette, 319 U.S. 624, 642 (1943). Your recent testimony before the U.S. House Appropriations Subcommittee on Homeland Security,¹ however, indicated that the Department of Homeland Security, under your leadership, is doing exactly that: prescribing orthodoxy by slapping a federal-government label of "disinformation" or "misinformation" on speech that government bureaucrats, operating behind closed doors, decree to be improper. This is an unacceptable and downright alarming encroachment on every citizen's right to express his or her opinions, engage in political debate, and disagree with the government. The Biden Administration's latest effort to decide what speech is “acceptable” and “orthodox” combines McCarthyite speech policing with the secrecy of the English Star Chamber. In short, you seem to have misunderstood George Orwell: the “Ministry of Truth” described in 1984 was intended as a warning against the dangers of socialism, not as a model government agency. “MiniTru” and its thuggish apparatchiks are the villains in that story, not the heroes. For the sake of our democracy, you must immediately disband the “Disinformation Governance Board” and cease all efforts to police Americans’ protected speech.

The existence of the Disinformation Governance Board will inevitably have a chilling effect on free speech. Americans will hesitate before they voice their constitutionally protected opinions, knowing that the government’s censors may be watching, and some will decide it is safer to keep their opinions to themselves. The resulting damage to our political system and our culture will be incalculable: as a democracy, our political debates and decisions are supposed to take place in the public square, where every citizen can participate, rather than in government office buildings where hand-picked and unaccountable partisan committees are insulated from public supervision and criticism.

The timing of the Disinformation Governance Board’s creation is also highly suspect. For years, many have defended Twitter’s open censorship of voices hostile to the elite consensus by arguing that private companies enjoy the right to determine what is said on their platforms. This argument only works, however, if those private companies are not censoring on the government’s behalf. By its own admission, the Biden Administration has been “flagging problematic posts” on social media and coordinating with the private sector to regulate Americans’ free speech.² The President of the United States publicly urged social media companies to police “misinformation and disinformation” on their platforms.³ Suddenly, just as Elon Musk prepares to acquire Twitter with the stated purpose of correcting the platform’s censorship of free speech, you announce the creation of the Disinformation Governance Board. As the Biden Administration apparently loses a critical ally in its campaign to suppress speech it deems “problematic,” you have created a new government body to continue that work within the federal government. The contemporaneous occurrence of these two events is hard to explain away as mere coincidence. It instead raises serious questions about the extent of the Biden Administration’s practice of coordinating with private-sector companies to suppress disfavored speech.

Murthy, July 15, 2021, The White House (July 15, 2021), <https://tinyurl.com/bdsc4jhh> (“[W]e are in regular touch with these social media platforms, and those engagements typically happen through members of our senior staff . . .”).

It has to stop.”).

Virginia, like many other States, is preparing to conduct federal, state, and local elections beginning with early primary voting this week. Virginians are evaluating candidates and their platforms, trying to persuade their friends and neighbors, and debating the merits of innumerable political and moral questions, from international conflicts to local disputes. And just like always, the public conversation will include disputes over facts, and potentially even intentional misstatements of fact. But as Justice Brandeis explained long ago, “the remedy to be applied is more speech, not enforced silence.” Whitney v. California, 274 U.S. 357, 377 (1927) (Brandeis, J., concurring). Your censorship will not drown out misinformation; it will suppress the lawful speech of well-meaning but unpopular speakers, and it will turn bad actors into martyrs with far more influence than if you simply allowed “more speech” to combat their alleged misinformation.

No statutory authority exists to support your creation of a board of government censors. Although Congress has considered a variety of measures to address the perceived dangers of “disinformation” in the United States, none has passed.⁴ Instead, while the people’s elected representatives continue to debate this issue, you have arrogated to yourself the power to address it without congressional authorization, despite the far-reaching effects of the Disinformation Governance Board on Americans and our political process. “It is axiomatic that an administrative agency’s power to promulgate legislative regulations is limited to the authority delegated by Congress.” Bowen v. Georgetown Univ. Hosp., 488 U.S. 204, 208 (1988). By flouting that essential check on the power of the Executive Branch, you undermine the separation of powers and dramatically overstep your authority and the jurisdiction of your agency.

There is perhaps no clearer illustration of the folly of the Disinformation Governance Board than the consistently poor judgment of the person you have made its executive director, Nina Jankowicz.⁵ Ms. Jankowicz—the self-styled “Mary Poppins of disinformation”⁶—is like so many who complain about misinformation and disinformation: she is often in error but never in doubt. She has previously suggested news that Hunter Biden’s laptop had been compromised was the product of a foreign disinformation campaign.⁷ She asserted that the theory tracing COVID-19 to a lab leak in China was invented because it was “politically convenient for Trump,”⁸ although the intelligence community now assesses that this theory may very well be correct.⁹ She has even praised Christopher Steele, the discredited author of the infamous false “dossier” about President Trump, and one of the most notable peddlers of disinformation in recent memory.¹⁰ It would be amusing that a self-proclaimed expert in disinformation like Ms. Jankowicz has proven to be so bad at identifying it, except that you have placed her in charge of doing so on behalf of the United States government.¹¹ It is also extremely troubling that Ms. Jankowicz has described parents in Loudoun County, Virginia who object to the indoctrination of their children with Critical Race Theory as “disinformers” engaged in “disinformation for profit.”¹²

The Disinformation Governance Board, by its very existence, and almost certainly by design, threatens to “enforce silence” when Americans wish to express views disfavored by the Administration. It is therefore already chilling free speech and impeding the political process in Virginia and every other State. This is unconstitutional, illegal, and un-American. Unless you turn back now and disband this Orwellian Disinformation Governance Board immediately, the undersigned will have no choice but to consider judicial remedies to protect the rights of their citizens.

Ms. Nina Jankowicz
U.S. Department of Homeland Security
301 7th Street S.W.
Washington, DC 20528

Dear Ms. Jankowicz:

On April 27, 2022, Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas testified that the Biden Administration had established a so-called “Disinformation Governance Board” to combat alleged disinformation and misinformation.¹ According to news reports, which you acknowledged on Twitter, you will lead the board as its executive director.² This Board is un-American, anti-democratic, and a dangerous escalation of the Biden Administration’s embrace of government-endorsed censorship. In addition, judging from your past statements, Americans can not and should not trust you with your newfound authority to act as the Biden Administration’s arbiter of the truth.

The Biden Administration has shown that it has, at best, a tenuous relationship with the truth. For example, President Biden has repeatedly and falsely asserted that facts about Hunter Biden’s business dealings with corrupt Ukrainian and Communist Party-linked Chinese nationals are Russian disinformation.³ President Biden made these assertions despite an independent Senate investigation substantiating many of the allegations.⁴ The New York Post has similarly reported on these dealings for years, and the New York Times and the Washington Post have more recently confirmed much of the original reporting.⁵

² Eugene Daniels et al., POLITICO Playbook: Fauci pulls out of WHCD. Is Biden next?, POLITICO (Apr. 27, 2022); Nina Jankowicz (@wiczipedia), TWITTER (Apr. 27, 2022, 7:17 AM), <https://twitter.com/wiczipedia/status/1519274470049042432>.

³ See Tyler Olson, President Biden said Hunter laptop was Russian disinformation, but some now says it ‘could’ be his, FOX NEWS (Apr. 2, 2021).

CONG., HUNTER BIDEN, BURISMA, AND CORRUPTION: THE IMPACT OF U.S. GOVERNMENT POLICY AND RELATED CONCERNS (Sept. 2020); STAFF OF THE S. COMM. ON HOMELAND SECURITY AND GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS AND THE S. COMM. ON FINANCE, 116TH. CONG., MAJORITY STAFF SUPPLEMENTAL (Nov. 2020).

⁵ See, e.g., Emma-Jo Morris & Gabrielle Fonroque, Smoking-gun emails reveals how Hunter Biden introduced Ukrainian businessman to VP dad, N.Y. POST (Oct. 14, 2020); Katie Brenner et al., Hunter Biden paid tax bill, but broad federal investigation continues, N.Y. TIMES (Mar. 16, 2022); Matt Viser et al., Inside Hunter Biden’s multimillion-dollar deals with a Chinese energy company, WASH. POST (Mar. 30, 2022).

You have similarly propagated this and other misinformation.⁶ On October 14, 2020, you were quoted in an Associated Press article about Hunter Biden’s laptop as saying it “should [be] view[ed] as a Trump campaign product.”⁷ On October 22, 2020, you argued that the laptop story was “a [fairy] tale about a laptop repair shop.”⁸ On March 16, 2021, you asserted that an intelligence community assessment about Russian and other foreign activities related to the 2020 election was a “clear nod to the alleged Hunter laptop.”⁹ On April 2, 2021, despite your statements to the contrary, Hunter Biden conceded that the laptop may have been his, and the New York Times subsequently reported that he had abandoned the laptop at the Delaware repair shop.¹⁰

You have also pushed left-wing disinformation about the so-called “Steele Dossier,” the false and tawdry set of allegations about President Trump generated and pushed by Democrat operatives during the 2016 election cycle. On April 22, 2020, you promoted the false narrative that the Steele Dossier “began as a Republican opposition research project.”¹¹ In fact, it was “Hillary Clinton’s campaign and the Democratic National Committee” that paid “Fusion GPS [beginning] in April [2016] for research that eventually became the basis for the dossier.”¹² You later promoted an interview with Steele that you described as providing “some great historical context about the evolution of disinfo.”¹³ You also promoted other theories, for instance about disclosures made by then-Director of National Intelligence John Ratcliffe, that turned out to be false.¹⁴

The establishment of the Biden Administration’s Board and your appointment to lead it gives rise to considerable concerns about its effect on Americans’ fundamental civil liberties. The ability of Americans to engage in robust debate and conversation is the foundation of American politics, and there is no place for a de facto ministry of truth in our government. The very idea of a ministry of truth should be revolting to all Americans who hold our Bill of Rights in high regard.

To assist the Committee in investigating this matter, please provide the following documents:

Dana Bash

Dana Bash is CNN's chief political correspondent and co-anchor of State of the Union with Jake Tapper and Dana Bash, the network's Sunday morning newsmaker show. Bash is based in Washington, D.C., where she covers both campaigns and Congress and regularly serves as a moderator for CNN's political town hall specials.

She also moderated CNN's first debate of the 2020 election cycle in Detroit, as well as the last Democratic Presidential Debate of the cycle held in Washington, D.C. Bash also anchored special coverage of Election Night in America surrounding the 2020 election, which lasted several days until CNN was the first to project Joe Biden as the winner. Bash is the winner of the National Press Foundation's 2019 Sol Taishoff Award for Excellence in Broadcast Journalism.

Bash played a key role in CNN's 2016 presidential primary debates, serving as a questioner in six of the network's seven primetime primary debates on both sides of the aisle. Bash also serves as a co-anchor on set in the CNN Election Center for all election night specials. As part of her coverage of the 2016 presidential campaigns, Bash conducted sit-down interviews with majority of the candidates including Donald Trump, Senators Ted Cruz, Marco Rubio, and Bernie Sanders, and Governors Jeb Bush and John Kasich.

Bash also continues to be instrumental to the network's Capitol Hill coverage. In 2015, she broke news on live television that House Majority Leader Kevin McCarthy would not be running for Speaker of the House and also conducted Speaker John Boehner's final interview on his last day in office. Bash also served as the lead correspondent covering former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton's 11-hour testimony before the House Select Committee on Benghazi.

Bash graduated cum laude with her bachelor's degree in political communications from The George Washington University.

Bret Baier

Bret Baier currently serves as FOX News Channel's (FNC) anchor and executive editor of Special Report with Bret Baier (weeknights at 6-7PM/ET) and chief political anchor of the network. He joined FNC in 1998 as the first reporter in the Atlanta bureau and is now based in Washington, DC.

Most recently, Baier has provided live breaking news coverage surrounding Russia's invasion of Ukraine, interviewing Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky and Ukrainian Foreign Minister Dmytro Kuleba. Throughout his tenure at FNC, Baier has played a critical role in every major political event since joining the network.

Prior to his anchor role, Baier was named chief White House correspondent in 2006 and covered the second term of the George W. Bush administration. Before that, he served as national security correspondent covering military and national security affairs, as well as defense, military policy and the intelligence community from the Pentagon.

As FNC's Southeastern correspondent from 1998 to 2001, he covered a range of stories, including the 2001 Timothy McVeigh execution and the 1999 Elian Gonzalez story. He has also provided a series of reports from Cuba and covered more than a dozen hurricanes.

Prior to joining FNC, Baier worked for WRAL-TV (CBS 5) in Raleigh, NC, WREX-TV (NBC 13) in Rockford, IL and WJWJ-TV (PBS 2) in Beaufort, SC. A graduate of DePauw University, he has a B.A. in political science and English. He is also the author of four New York Times Best-Sellers.

Chuck Todd

Chuck Todd, NBC News political director and moderator of Meet the Press, spearheads the network's premier political coverage, offering insider analysis and translation of Beltway politics across all platforms – zeroing in on what really matters in Washington and why.

Todd is also a primary anchor for the network's primetime election coverage and is known for holding politicians and newsmakers accountable.

Prior to taking the helm of Meet the Press in September 2014, Todd served as NBC News chief White House correspondent (2008 - 2014), traveling around the world with President Obama and reporting on the main pillars of his presidency, including the passage of the Affordable Care Act. From 2010 to 2014, Chuck also hosted MSNBC's The Daily Rundown, featuring daily interviews with top congressional members.

In 2007, Tim Russert, then-Washington bureau chief and Meet the Press moderator, recruited Todd to join NBC News as the network's political director. Prior to joining NBC News, Todd worked at the National Journal's "The Hotline" for 15 years, serving for six of those years as the editor-in-chief.

Todd is a native of Miami and currently resides in Arlington, Va. with his wife, Kristian, and two children.
